30 Agreement (or any extension of it), Buyer or any person acting on behalf of Buyer acquires an interest in property or enters
31 into an enforceable written contract between owner and Buyer to acquire an interest in property, at any terms and price
32 acceptable to owner and Buyer. Broker's compensation remains due and payable if an enforceable written contract

40 procurement of an interest in a specific property, and 2) negotiate the procurement of an interest in property, as
41 required, by giving advice to Buyer within the scope of Broker's license, facilitating or participating in the discussions of

43 with an explanation of the proposal's advantages and disadvantages and other efforts including but not limited to the 44 following:

45 _____
46 __, unless Broker is retained solely to locate an interest in property.

47 ■ EARNEST MONEY: If Broker holds trust funds in connection with the transaction, they shall be retained by Broker in 48 Broker's trust account. Broker may refuse to hold earnest money or other trust funds. Should Broker hold the earnest money,
49 Buyer authorizes Broker to disburse the earnest money as directed in a written earnest money disbursement agreement signed
50 by all parties having an interest in the trust funds. If the transaction fails to close and the earnest money is disbursed to Buyer,
51 then upon disbursement to Buyer the earnest money shall be paid first to reimburse Broker for cash advances made by Broker
52 on behalf of Buyer.

53 ■ NON DISCRIMINATION: Buyer and Broker agree that they will not discriminate based on race, color, sex, sexual 54 orientation as defined in Wisconsin Statutes §111.32(13m), disability, religion, national origin, marital status, lawful
55 source of income, age, ancestry, familial status or in any other unlawful manner.

56 ■ BROKER DISCLOSURE TO CLIENTS:57 UNDER WISCONSIN LAW, A BROKER OWES CERTAIN DUTIES TO ALL PARTIES TO A TRANSACTION:

- 58 (a) The duty to provide brokerage services to you fairly and honestly.
59 (b) The duty to exercise reasonable skill and care in providing brokerage services to you.
60 (c) The duty to provide you with accurate information about market conditions within a reasonable time if you request it,
61 unless disclosure of the information is prohibited by law.
62 (d) The duty to disclose to you in writing certain material adverse facts about a property, unless disclosure of the 63 information is prohibited by law. (See lines 170-173)
64 (e) The duty to protect your confidentiality. Unless the law requires it, the broker will not disclose your confidential
65 information or the confidential information of other parties. (See lines 109-122)
66 (f) The duty to safeguard trust funds and other property the broker holds.
67 (g) The duty, when negotiating, to present contract proposals in an objective and unbiased manner and disclose the 68 advantages and disadvantages of the proposals.

69 BECAUSE YOU HAVE ENTERED INTO AN AGENCY AGREEMENT WITH A BROKER, YOU ARE THE BROKER'S
70 CLIENT. A BROKER OWES ADDITIONAL DUTIES TO A CLIENT:

- 71 (a) The broker will provide, at your request, information and advice on real estate matters that affect your transaction,
72 unless you release the broker from this duty.
73 (b) The broker must provide you with all material facts affecting the transaction, not just adverse facts.
74 (c) The broker will fulfill the broker's obligations under the agency agreement and fulfill your lawful requests that are
75 within the scope of the agency agreement.
76 (d) The broker will negotiate for you, unless you release the broker from this duty.
77 (e) The broker will not place the broker's interests ahead of your interests. The broker will not, unless required by law,
78 give information or advice to other parties who are not the broker's clients, if giving the information or advice is 79 contrary to your interests.
80 (f) If you become involved in a transaction in which another party is also the broker's client (a "multiple representation 81 relationship"), different duties may apply.

82 ■ MULTIPLE REPRESENTATION RELATIONSHIPS AND DESIGNATED AGENCY:

83 A multiple representation relationship exists if a broker has an agency agreement with more than one client who is a
84 party in the same transaction. In a multiple representation relationship, if all of the broker's clients in the transaction
85 consent, the broker may provide services to the clients through designated agency.
86 Designated agency means that different salespersons employed by the broker will negotiate on behalf of you and the 87 other client or clients in the transaction and the broker's duties will remain the same. Each salesperson will provide
88 information, opinions, and advice to the client for whom the salesperson is negotiating, to assist the client in the
89 negotiations. Each client will be able to receive information, opinions, and advice that will assist the client, even if the 90 information, opinions, or advice gives the client advantages in the negotiations over the broker's other clients. A
91 salesperson will not reveal any of your confidential information to another party unless required to do so by law.
92 If a designated agency relationship is not in effect you may authorize or reject a multiple representation relationship. If
93 you authorize a multiple representation relationship the broker may provide brokerage services to more than one client
94 in a transaction but neither the broker nor any of the broker's salespersons may assist any client with information, opinions,
95 and advice which may favor the interests of one client over any other client. If you do not consent to a multiple representation
96 relationship the broker will not be allowed to provide brokerage services to more than one client in the transaction.

97 INITIAL ONLY ONE OF THE THREE LINES BELOW:

98 _____ I consent to designated agency.

99 _____ I consent to multiple representation relationships, but I do not consent to designated agency.

100 _____ I reject multiple representation relationships.

101 NOTE: You may withdraw your consent to designated agency or to multiple representation relationships by written notice to
102 the broker at any time. Your broker is required to disclose to you in your agency agreement the commission or fees that you
103 may owe to your broker. If you have any questions about the commission or fees that you may owe based upon the type of 104 agency relationship you select with your broker you should ask your broker before signing the agency agreement.

105 ■ SUBAGENCY: The broker may, with your authorization in the agency agreement, engage other brokers who assist your 106 broker by providing brokerage services for your benefit. A subagent will not put the subagent's own interests ahead of your 107 interests. A subagent will not, unless required by law, provide advice or opinions to other parties if doing so is contrary to your 108 interests.

109 PLEASE REVIEW THIS INFORMATION CAREFULLY. A broker or salesperson can answer your questions about 110 brokerage services, but if you need legal advice, tax advice, or a professional home inspection, contact an attorney,
111 tax advisor, or home inspector. This disclosure is required by section 452.135 of the Wisconsin statutes and is for 112 information only. It is a plain language summary of a broker's duties to you under section 452.133 (2) of the 113 Wisconsin statutes.

114 ■ CONFIDENTIALITY NOTICE TO CLIENTS: Broker will keep confidential any information given to Broker in 115 confidence, or any information obtained by Broker that he or she knows a reasonable person would want to be kept
116 confidential, unless the information must be disclosed by law or you authorize Broker to disclose particular information.
117 Broker shall continue to keep the information confidential after Broker is no longer providing brokerage services to you.

118 THE FOLLOWING INFORMATION IS REQUIRED TO BE DISCLOSED BY LAW:

- 119 1. Material adverse facts, as defined in section 452.01 (5g) of the Wisconsin statutes (See lines 170-173).
- 120 2. Any facts known by the broker that contradict any information included in a written inspection report on the property
121 or real estate that is the subject of the transaction. To ensure that the broker is aware of what specific information
122 you consider confidential, you may list that information below (See lines 119-120). At a later time, you may also 123 provide the broker with other information you consider to be confidential.

124 CONFIDENTIAL

132 considered confidential. An example of this type of information might be financial qualification information which may be
133 disclosed to strengthen Buyer's offer to purchase/lease proposal in the eyes of prospective sellers/landlords. Broker's
134 authorization to disclose may be indicated at lines 121-122. Unless otherwise provided at lines 119-120, Broker has 135 permission to disclose Buyer's identity to owner, owner's agents and other third parties without prior consent from Buyer.
136 Buyer acknowledges that pursuant to Wisconsin Statute section 706.03(1)(b)(1m) a conveyance, such as an offer to 138 such time as Buyer is identified in the conveyance.

139 ■ NON-EXCLUSIVE RELATIONSHIP: Buyer acknowledges and agrees that Broker may act for other buyers in connection
140 with the location of properties and may negotiate on behalf of such buyers with the owner or owner's agent. In the event that
141 Broker undertakes to represent and act for other buyers, Broker shall not disclose to Buyer, or any other buyer, any 142 confidential information of any buyer, unless required by law.

143 ■ COOPERATION: Buyer agrees to cooperate with Broker and to provide Broker accurate copies of all relevant records,
144 documents and other materials in Buyer's possession or control which are required in connection with the purchase, option,
145 exchange or lease of property. Buyer agrees to be reasonably available for showings of properties. Buyer authorizes
146 Broker to do those acts reasonably necessary to fulfill Broker's responsibilities under this Agreement including retaining 147 subagents. Buyer shall promptly notify Broker in writing of the description of any property Buyer locates. Buyer shall also 148 notify Broker of the identity of all persons making inquiries concerning Buyer's objectives stated in this Agreement.

149 ■ PROPERTY DIMENSIONS: Buyer acknowledges that property dimensions, total square footage and total acreage
